NARAJOLE RAJ COLLEGE

(NAAC Accredited 'B' Grade Govt. Aided College)
NARAJOLE: PASCHIM MEDINIPUR: WEST BENGAL: Pin-721211
E-mail: arajolerajcollege@rediffmail.com
Website: https://www.narajolerajcollege.ac.in

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

Political Science (Hons)

Political science is a dynamic social science. It covers Political Theory, Political ideologies, constitutions, functions of different organs of Government, Public Administrations, International Relations, International organizations and other socio-economic issues. So after successful completion of six semester degree program in Political Science , students will be equipped with the following qualities and abilities.

After completion of the programme, the graduates will be capable of-

PSO1: Students will gain Analytical abilities, skill of debate and presentation of own thoughts and arguments.

PSO2: They will be equipped with a vast knowledge on the formation and functions of governments of different countries and that will help them to be sincere and good citizens.

PSO3: By taking part in the survey analysis, they will be aware of function of different levels of government, especially Local Self-Government.

PSO4: They will be able to solve problems and also think methodically, independently and draw a logical conclusion.

PSO5: An understanding of major concepts in all branches and related subjects of Political Science will be acquired by the students and that will help them to contribute in different administrative and social service.

PSO6: Besides developmental and welfare activities of the government, there are so many non-governmental organizations active in the society. With the knowledge of this programme, students will be able to form and take part in these non-governmental organizations.

PSO7: As the students will be engaged in the Project Work ,the leadership quality, planning and planning management capacity, attitude of group activity, evaluation of advancement and completion of the project and other qualities will be nurtured and enriched.

PSO8: As outcome of this programme , sincere, conscious and active students will enrich the Human Resource of our Country.

NARAJOLE RAJ COLLEGE

(NAAC Accredited 'B' Grade Govt. Aided College)
NARAJOLE: PASCHIM MEDINIPUR: WEST BENGAL: Pin-721211
E-mail: arajolerajcollege@rediffmail.com
Website: https://www.narajolerajcollege.ac.in

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

Political Science (General)

Political science is a dynamic social science. It covers Political Theory, constitutions, functions of different organs of Government, Public Administrations, International Relations, International organizations and other socio-economic issues. So after successful completion of six semester degree program in Political Science , students will be equipped with the following qualities and abilities.

After completion of the programme, the graduates will be capable of-

PSO1: Students will gain Analytical abilities, skill of debate and presentation of own thoughts and arguments.

PSO2: They will be equipped with a vast knowledge on the formation and functions of governments of different countries and that will help them to be sincere and good citizens.

PSO3: By taking part in the survey analysis, they will be aware of function of different levels of government, especially Local Self-Government.

PSO4: They will be able to solve problems and also think methodically, independently and draw a logical conclusion.

PSO5: An understanding of major concepts in all branches and related subjects of Political Science will be acquired by the students and that will help them to contribute in different administrative and social service.

PSO6: Besides developmental and welfare activities of the government, there are so many non-governmental organizations active in the society. With the knowledge of this programme, students will be able to form and take part in these non-governmental organizations.

NARAJOLE RAJ COLLEGE

(NAAC Accredited 'B' Grade Govt. Aided College)
NARAJOLE: PASCHIM MEDINIPUR: WEST BENGAL: Pin-721211
E-mail: arajoleracollege@rediffmail.com
Website: https://www.narajolerajcollege.ac.in

Course Outcome

Political Science (Hons.)

Semester	I
Title of Course	Understanding Political Theory
Paper Code	C1
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After successful completion of this course the students will attain thorough knowledge about Political Theory, different approaches to the study of politics.

This course CC1 provides the students with

CO1. Political Theory and different approaches to the study of Political Science

CO2. Traditional Political Theory, Liberal, Marxist, Anarchists and conservative

CO3. Critical and contemporary Perspectives in Political Theory, Feminist and Postmodern

CO4. The Grammar of Democracy, history of the idea and different kinds of democracy e.g. procedural, Deliberative etc.

CO5. Meaning and definition of participation and Representation

CO6 Different types of representation.

CO7. Limitations of Democracy will also be taught to the students

Semester	I
Title of Course	Constitutional Government and Democracy in India
Paper Code	C2
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After successful completion of this course the students will learn about the philosophy of the Indian Constitution ,the structure and functions of the three basic organs of the Indian Government - the Executive, President and Prime Minister, the Legislature, the Parliament and the Judiciary, the Supreme Court. They also know about federalism and the decentralization of power, from centre to state and local administration

This course CC2 provides the students with:

CO1: The Philosophical basis of the Indian Constitution

CO2: The Rights and Duties of the Indian Citizens

CO3: The structure and functions of the Executive, the Legislature and the Judiciary of India

CO4: Nature of Indian Federalism, decentralization of Power

CO5: Relation between the Central Government and the State Governments

CO6: Structure and functions of the Local Governments (Urban and Rural

Estd.-1966

Semester	II
Title of Course	Political Theory- Concepts and Debates
Paper Code	C3
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will be able to attain the knowledge of the core concepts of Political theory like Freedom, Equality, Justice and Rights.

This course CC3 provides the students with:

CO1: The importance of Freedom, Negative and Positive Freedom

CO2: Freedom as emancipation and development

CO3: The Right to Freedom of belief, expression and dissent

CO4: The idea of Equality, equality and opportunity

CO5: Different kinds of Equality

CO6: Significance of Equality in the modern society

CO7: Inequality and its background

CO8: Indispensability of Justice, procedural, distributive and global justice

CO9: The universality of Rights

CO10: Natural and Moral Rights

CO11: Three Generations of Rights

CO11: Rights and Obligation

CO12: Rights of the Girl Child

CO13: Major debates : political obligation and disobedience, cultural relativism and universality of rights, diversity and multiculturalism

Semester	II
Title of Course	Political Process in India
Paper Code	C4
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain a complete knowledge about features of political parties, determinants of voting behaviour, several issues of politics like caste, caste, religion and the changing nature of the state etc.

This course CC4 provides the students with:

CO1: Political Party: definition, features and types of political parties

CO2: Class, Caste, Gender and religion as determinants of Votingbehavior

CO3: Regional Aspiration and crisis of Secessionism

CO4: Interactions between Religion and Politics

CO5: Meaning of Secularism and its significance

CO6: Concept of Communalism and majority and minority communalism

CO7: Affirmative Active Politics and the role of women, Caste and Class

CO8: The changing nature of Indian State since independence

CO9: Concepts of development and welfare and Coercive dimensions

Semester	III
Title of Course	Introduction of Comparative Government Politics
Paper Code	C5
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After successful completion of this course the students will attain knowledge about the Government and Politics of Great Britain, Brazil, Nigeria and China

This course CC5 provides the students with:

CO1: Nature and scope of Comparative Politics

CO2: Discussion on Eurocentrism and Going beyond Eurocentrism

CO3: Different historical context of modern governments

CO4: Meaning of Capitalism, its development and globalization

CO5: Meaning of Socialism and its growth and development

CO6: Meaning of Colonialism and decolonization, forms of colonialism

CO7: Anti-colonialism struggles and process of decolonization

CO8: Comparative study of constitutional development and political economy of United Kingdom, Brazil, Nigeria and China

Semester	III
Title of Course	Perspectives on Public Administration
Paper Code	C6
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain athorough knowledge of Public Administration in general and contemporary Public Policies in special.

This course CC6 provides the students with:

CO1: Meaning, Dimensions and Significance of Public Administration

CO2: Concept of Private and Public Administration and differences between them

CO3: Evolution of Public Administration

CO4: Classical Theories of Public Administration, i) Scientific Management, ii) Administrative Management, iii) Max Weber's Theory of Bureaucracy

CO5: Concept of Neo-classical Theories of Public Administration, i) Human Relation Theory, ii) Rational decision –making

CO6: Contemporary theories of Public Administration and the Ecological Approach and the idea of Innovation and Entrepreneurship

CC7: Concept of Public Policy and its relevance, its formulation, implementation and evaluation

CC8: Major Approaches in Public Administration, discussion on i) New Public Administration, ii) New Public Management, iii) New Public Service Approach, iv) Good Governance, v) Feminist Perspectives

Semester	III
Title of Course	Perspectives of International Relations and World History
Paper Code	C7
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After successful completion of this course the students will acquire knowledge about the perspectives of International Relations and world History

This course CC7 provides the students with:

CO1: Concept, definition and analytical discussion of International Relations

CO2: History of International Relations and emergence of State system

CO3: Pre-Westphalia, Westphalia and post Westphalia era, features and significance

CO4: Theoretical Perspective of International Relations, Classical Realism and Neo-Realism, Liberalism and Neo-liberalism, Marxist and Feminist approaches, Eurocentrism and perspective from Global South

CO5: An overview of the history of International Relations in the Twentieth Century,

CO6: Discussion on the major events of the twentieth century like World War I, Bolshevik Revolution, Fascism and Nazism, World War II, Cold War and its different phases, Emergence of Third World, Collapse of USSR, Emergence of other centers of power.

Semester	III
Title of Course	Public Opinion and Survey Research
Paper Code	SEC1
Credits	02
Hours	02hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain knowledge about the conception, characteristics and importance of Public Opinion and how it is formed and act in a democratic political system.

This course SEC1 provides the students with:

CO1. Definition of Public Opinion and its characteristics and role in a democratic political system

CO2. Methods of Measuring Public Opinion with Survey, Sampling and its different types, representation.

CO3. Different methods of Survey Research, Interviewing and its techniques, questionnaire and its methods

CO4. Concept and techniques of Quantitative Data Analysis

CO5. Interpreting Polls and the methods and limitations of interpreting polls.

Estd.-1966

Semester	IV
Title of Course	Processes and Institutions in Comparative Perspective
Paper Code	C8
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this paper students will be able to attain the knowledge on different approaches and institutions of comparative politics and the origin, functions and role of these institutions

This course CC8provides the students with:

CO1: Approaches to the study of Comparative Politics, Political Culture and New Institutionalism

CO2: Electoral System, definition and procedures, different types of election system, First Past the Post, Proportional and Mixed Representation

CO3:Party System- historical contexts and emergence and types of party system

CO4 Historical evolution of Nation State, Debates on State and Nation

Co5 Concept of Democratization, Democratization in the pos-colonial, post-authoritarian and post-colonial countries

CC6: Federalism and confederation, debates on territorial division of power

Semester	IV
Title of Course	Public Policy and Administration in India
Paper Code	C9
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After successful completion of this course the students will acquire knowledge about Public Policy and Administration in India.

This course CC9 provides the students with:

CO1. Definition, characteristics and different models of public policy and administration.

CO2. Decentralization and its implications through the formation of local self-governments.

CO3. Budget- the concept, various approaches and significance of Budget

CO4. Public service and its redressal methods like RTI, Lokpal, E-governance

CO5. Welfare activities of Indian Government through education, health, food and employment

Semester	IV
Title of Course	Global Politics
Paper Code	C10
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this course, students will attain a complete concept of global politics, international organizations and their activities

This course CC10 provides the students with:

CO1.The concept of globalization, ongoing debates on sovereignty and territoriality, significance of global economy, role of the World Bank, World Trade Organizations and Transnational Corporations and cultural and technological dimensions.

CO2. Ecological problems and their remedies, climate change and its impact, Nuclear proliferation, international terrorism, migration etc.

CO3. Interrelation and interdependence among the countries in the age of Globalization

Semester	IV
Title of Course	Legislative Practices and Procedures
Paper Code	SEC2
Credits	02
Hours	02hours/week

After gone through this paper students will aware of the Legislative Practices and Procedures. Power and functions of the people's representatives and the procedures of the Legislative Bodies are to be taught. They will also attain knowledge about the Bill and Budget.

This course SEC2 provides the students with :

CO1.Power and functions of the People's Representatives in the Parliament

CO2.Power and functions of the People's Representatives in the State Legislative Assembly

CO3.Power and functions of the People's Representatives in the Panchyati Raj Institutions and Municipal Bodies

CO4. Formation and functions of different Legislative Committees

CO5. Concept of Budget and overview of the Budget Process, role of the parliament, Railway Budget

CO6. Types of Media and their role in monitoring the Legislative process

Semester	V
Title of Course	Classical Political Philosophy
Paper Code	C11
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After successful completion of the course, students' aptitude of interpretation and expression will be enriched. Students will read the classical texts of Plato, Aristotle, Machiavelli, Hobbes and Locke and learn to interpret their thoughts.

This course CC11 provides the students with

CO1. Interpretation of Texts

CO2. Works of Plato and Aristotle and unique method of their interpretation

CO3. Machiavelli's unique interpretation of politics

CO4.Possessive Individualism - Hobbes and Locke and their explanation about the origin of the state.

Semester	V
Title of Course	Indian Political Thought
Paper Code	C12
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this paper students will be familiar with the treasure of Indian political thought, from ancient to medieval period.

This course CC12 provides the students with

CO1.Tradition of pre-colonial Indian Political Thought Brahmanic and Shramanic, thoughtsand Islamic and syncretic thoughts

CO2.VedVyasa (Shantiparba): Rajdharma

CO3.Manu : Social Laws

CO4.Katilya : Theory of State

CO5.Aggannsuta (DighaNikaya): Theory of kingship CO6.Barani : Ideal Polity

CO7.Abul Fazal's concept of Monarchy

CO8.Kabir: Syncretism

Semester	V
Title of Course	India's Foreign Policy in Globalizing World
Paper Code	DSE1
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain a complete knowledge on the evolution, objective and strategies of India's Foreign Policy since independence till date

This course DSE1 provides the students with

CO1. India's Foreign Policy: From a Postcolonial State to the present world scenario

CO2. . India and her Bi-lateral Relations with the USA and USSR/ Russia

CO3.India's Engagement with her neighbour country China and causes behind the ups and downs of the relation

CO4.An understanding of the relation between India and the South Asian countries

CO5. An Overview of India's Negotiating Style and Strategies on the Trade, Environment and Security Regimes

.

Semester	V
Title of Course	United Nations and Global Conflicts
Paper Code	DSE2
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain knowledge about United Nations , the leading international organization. Almost all independent countries are the members of it. So students should know the formation, objectives and functions of different organs of it and its role in solving the global conflicts.

This course DSE2 provides the students with

CO1.The formation, objectives and functions of different organs of UNO

CO2.Major Global Conflicts since the Second World War

CO3. Assessment of the activities of the UNO

CO4. Suggestions and recommendations for the reformation of the UNO

Semester	VI
Title of Course	Modern Political Philosophy
Paper Code	C13
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After successful completion of the course students will be able to get a complete idea of modernity and modern political philosophy. They will be introduced with the discourses around modernity.

This course CC13 provides the students with

CO1.The concept of Modernity and its discourses

CO2. Rousseau's concept of General Will and Mary Wollstonecraft's views

CO3. John Stuart Mill's ideas on Liberty, suffrage, subjection of women

CO4. Karl Marx and Alexandra Kollontai views

Semester	VI

Title of Course	Indian Political Thought
Paper Code	C14
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After successful completion of the course students will attain a complete idea about the modern Indian Political thought.

This course CC14 provides the students with

CO1.Introduction to Modern Indian Political Thought

CO2. Lliberal thoughts of Rammohon Roy

CO3.PanditaRamabai and Genderissues

CO4.Vivekananda: Ideal Society and his views on social reorganization

CO5. Gandhi and his idea of swaraj

CO6. Ambedkar's views on justice

CO7. Tagore's Views of Nationalism

CO8.Iqbal on Community

CO9. Hindutva as propounded by Savarkar

CO10.Nehru on Secularism

CO11.Lohia's views on Socialism

Semester	VI

Title of Course	Women, Power and Politics
Paper Code	DSE3
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this paper students will be know about the interrelation between gender and politics.In all most societies, patriarchal values and practices are active till now. So the students of Political Science must be aware of the issues of Patriarchy, Gender issues and power. They will be able to attain the origin of patriarchy and its consequences through studying this course.

This course DSE3 provides the students with

CO1. Concept of Patriarchy and Sex-Gender Debates

CO2. Concept of Public and Private

CO3. Interrelation between Gender and Power

CO4. Concept of the Family, Community and State

CO5. The History of Women's Movement in India, violence against women and women as labor of the community.

Semester	VI
Title of Course	PROJECT
Paper Code	DSE4
Credits	06
Hours	06hours/week

After gone through this paper students will be engaged in the Project Work, For taking part in the Project, the leadership quality, planning and planning management capacity, attitude of group activity, evaluation of advancement and completion of the project and other qualities will be nurtured and enriched.

NARAJOLE RAJ COLLEGE

(NAAC Accredited 'B' Grade Govt. Aided College)
NARAJOLE: PASCHIM MEDINIPUR: WEST BENGAL: Pin-721211
E-mail: arajoleracollege@rediffmail.com
Website: https://www.narajolerajcollege.ac.in

Course Outcome

Political Science (GE)

Semester	I
Title of Course	Nationalism in India
Paper Code	GE1
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain the knowledge of Nationalism in India and the different approaches to the study of Nationalism. They will be able to understand the contribution of the social and religious movements and the effects of communalism , especially the Two-Nation Theory in India.

This course GE1: provides the students with

CO1. Concept of Nationalism and approaches to the study of nationalism

CO2. Major Social Movements in 19th century

CO3. Different Phases of Nationalist Movements- Liberal, Gandh led movements, socialist alternatives

CO4. Social Movements and issues of women, Caste, peasants and tribal

CO5. Communalism in India and the Two-Nation Theory and negotiation over participation

Semester	II
Title of Course	Governance: issues and challenges
Paper Code	GE2
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain the knowledge of Government and governance, issues of development, issues of environmental governance, local governance and initiatives of good governance in India

This course GE2: provides the students with

CO1. Concept of Government and governance, role of the State in the era of globalization

CO2. Changing dimensions of development and the concept of good governance

CO3. The concept of Environmental governance and Green Governance

CO4. The concept of Sustainable Development and human-environment interrelation

CO5. Initiatives taken in India for good governance

Semester	III
Title of Course	Gandhi and the Contemporary World
Paper Code	GE3
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain the knowledge of Gandhian Thought and its relevance in the contemporary world. They will be familiar with the techniques of Gandhi to lead the freedom movement and also to reconstruct the Indian Society

This course GE3: provides the students with

CO1. Gandhi's views on modern civilization

CO2. Techniques of Gandhi to lead the freedom movement and their application in the society

CO3. Gandhi's principles and their relevance in the contemporary social movements

CO4. Gandhi's views on caste and untochability and their relevance in present society

CO5. Gandhi's legacy, especially on the issues of tolerance, women pacifist movement and in popular culture

Semester	IV
Title of Course	United Nations and Global Conflicts
Paper Code	GE4
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain knowledge about United Nations , the leading international organization. Almost all independent countries are the members of it. So students should know the formation, objectives and functions of different organs of it and its role in solving the global conflicts.

This course GE4: provides the students with

CO1.The formation, objectives and functions of different organs of UNO

CO2.Major Global Conflicts since the Second World War

CO3. Assessment of the activities of the UNO

CO4. Suggestions and recommendations for the reformation of the UNO

CO5.UNO and its new role in the changing world scenario

NARAJOLE RAJ COLLEGE

(NAAC Accredited 'B' Grade Govt. Aided College)
NARAJOLE: PASCHIM MEDINIPUR: WEST BENGAL: Pin-721211
E-mail: arajoleracollege@rediffmail.com
Website: https://www.narajolerajcollege.ac.in

Course Outcome

Political Science (DSC)

Semester	I
Title of Course	Introduction to political theory
Paper Code	DSC 1A
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper Students will attain a complete knowledge on the theories and basic concepts of Political Science. Their skill of debating and arguing will be nurtured and enriched by following the part of Debates in Political Theory

This course DSC1A provides the students with:

CO1. Definition of Politics

CO2. Different concepts of Political Theory

CO3. Concept of Democracy

CO4. Concept of Liberty

CO5. Concept of Equality

CO6. Concept of Justice

CO7. Concept of Rights

CO8. Concept of Gender

CO9. Concept of Civil Society and State

C10. Issues of Debates Democracy and Economic Growth

Semester	II
Title of Course	Indian Government and Politics
Paper Code	DSC 1B
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper Students will attain a complete knowledge on the government and politics of India. The President, The Prime Minister, the SupremeCourt and the Parliament as the chief institutions of the Government and different issues like Religion and Caste, functions of the Political Parties will be taught to the students.

This course DSC1B provides the students with:

CO1. Different Approaches to the study of Indian Politics

CO2. Basic features of Indian Constitution and fundamental rights of the citizens

CO3. Power and functions of the President and the Prime Minister

CO4. Power structure in India, specil emphasis on Caste, Calss and Patriarchy

CO5. Debates on Secularism and Communalism

CO6. Party and Party System in India

CO7. Social Movements in India, and special emphasis on Workers, Peasants, Environment and Women

Estd.-1966

Semester	III
Title of Course	Comparative Government and Politics
Paper Code	DSC 1C
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper Students will attain a complete knowledge on Comparative Government and Politics. They will learn to compare between different political system and governments.

This course DSC1C provides the students with:

CO1. The Nature and scope of Comparative political analysis

CO2. Comparison between different regimes – Authoritarian and Democratic

CO3. Classifications of political system of UK,USA, Canada and China

CO4. Different Electoral Systems

CO5. Classifications of Party System

Semester	III
Title of Course	Legislative Support
Paper Code	SEC1
Credits	02
Hours	02 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will aware of the Legislative Practices and Procedures. Power and functions of the people's representatives and the procedures of the Legislative Bodies are to be taught. They will also attain knowledge about the Bill and Budget

This course SEC1 provides the students with:

CO1.Power and functions of the People's Representatives in the Parliament

CO2. Power and functions of the People's Representatives in the State Legislative Assembly

CO3. Power and functions of the People's Representatives in the Panchyati Raj Institutions and Municipal Bodies

CO4. Formation and functions of different Legislative Committees

CO5. Concept of Budget and overview of the Budget Process, role of the parliament, Railway Budget

CO6. Types of Media and their role in monitoring the Legislative process

Semester	IV
Title of Course	Introduction to International Relations
Paper Code	DSC 1D
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper Students will attain a complete knowledge on International Relations and major events in the world History since the World War II. They will learn about the evolution of the India's Foreign Policy.

This course DSC1D provides the students with:

CO1. Approaches to the study of International Relations

CO2. Major events in the world history during the Cold War and in the Post- Cold War era

CO3. India's Foreign Policy, its determinants and evolution

CO4. Non-alignment Movement and role of India

CO5. India as an emerging power in Asia as well as in the World

Semester	IV
Title of Course	Public Opinion and Survey Research
Paper Code	SEC2
Credits	02
Hours	02 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain knowledge about the conception, characteristics and importance of Public Opinion and how it is formed and act in a democratic political system.

This course SEC2 provides the students with:

CO1. Definition of Public Opinion and its characteristics and role in a democratic political system

CO2. Methods of Measuring Public Opinion with Survey, Sampling and its different types, representation.

CO3. Different methods of Survey Research, Interviewing and its techniques, questionnaire and its methods

CO4. Concept and techniques of Quantitative Data Analysis

CO5. Interpreting Polls and the methods and limitations of interpreting polls

Estd.-1966

Semester	V
Title of Course	Themes in Comparative Political Theory
Paper Code	DSE 1A
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper Students will attain a complete knowledge on Comparative Political Theory, western and Indian. Political Thoughts of the western and Indian political thinkers will be taught to the students.

This course DSE1 provides the students with:

CO1. Distinctive features of Indian and Western Political Thought

CO2. Political Thought of Aristotle, special emphasis on Citizenship

CO2. Concept of Rights of Locke

CO3. Rousseau on Inequality

CO4. Concepts of Liberty and Democracy of J.S.Mill

CO5. Karl Marx and Bakunin on State

CO6. Indian Political Thought, Kautilya and his concept of State

CO7. Tilak and Gandhi's concept of Swaraj

CO8. Social Justice and the concept of Ambedkar and Lihia

CO9. Nehru and Joyprakash Narayan on Democracy

CO10. Ramabai on patriarchy

Semester	V
Title of Course	Nationalism in India
Paper Code	GE1
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain the knowledge of Nationalism in India and the different approaches to the study of Nationalism. They will be able to understand the contribution of the social and religious movements and the effects of communalism , especially the Two-Nation Theory in India.

This course GE1 provides the students with:

CO1. Concept of Nationalism and approaches to the study of nationalism

CO2. Major Social Movements in 19th century

CO3. Different Phases of Nationalist Movements- Liberal, Gandh led movements, socialist alternatives

CO4. Social Movements and issues of women, Caste, peasants and tribal

CO5. Communalism in India and the Two-Nation Theory and negotiation over participation

Estd.-1966

Semester	V
Title of Course	Democratic Awareness with Legal Literacy
Paper Code	SEC3
Credits	02
Hours	02 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain knowledge on the Legal Services and their practical application.

This course SEC3 provides the students with:

CO1. Democratic awareness and Legal Literacy

CO2. Concept on the Legal system in India, Writ jurisdiction, role of Police Station

CO3. Indian Constitution and Fundamental Rights of the citizens

CO4. Laws relating to criminal jurisdiction

CO5. What is FIR and how to file a FIR

CO6. Principal of Natural Justice and Fair comment under Contempt laws

CO7. Concepts of Personal Law, Cyber Law,

Estd.-1966

Semester	VI
Title of Course	Administration and Public Policy
Paper Code	DSE1B
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper Students will attain a complete knowledge on Administration and Public Policy and its concepts and Theories. They will be able to understand aboutdevelopment administration.

This course DSE1B provides the students with:

CO1. Definition of Public Administration and its evolution as a discipline

CO2. Approaches to the study of Public Administration

CO3. Classical Theories of Public Administration, Scientific Management, Human Relation Theory

CO4. Concept and theories of Public Policy, Process of formulation and implementation

CO5. Evolution of Public Administration, Development Administration and New Public Administration

Semester	VI
Title of Course	United Nations and Global Conflict
Paper Code	GE2
Credits	06
Hours	06 hours/week

After gone through this paper students will attain knowledge about United Nations , the leading international organization. Almost all independent countries are the members of it. So students should know the formation, objectives and functions of different organs of it and its role in solving the global conflicts

This course GE2 provides the students with:

CO1.The formation, objectives and functions of different organs of UNO

CO2.Major Global Conflicts since the Second World War

CO3. Assessment of the activities of the UNO

CO4. Suggestions and recommendations for the reformation of the UNO

CO5.UNO and its new role in the changing world scenario

Semester	VI
Title of Course	Conflict and Peace Building
Paper Code	SEC4
Credits	02
Hours	02 hours/week

After studying the paper students can realize their Intuition knowledge.

This course SEC4 provides the students with:

CO1. Understanding of conflicts of different kinds,

CO2. Dimensions of conflicts, ideology, economy and socio-cultural issues

CO3. Conflicts of different levels, local, sub-national and international

CO4. Techniques of Conflicts responses, Negotiation, Trust Building, Mediation, Gandhian Methods

CO5. Classroom Activities